Pismo Beach Police Department
Homicide Investigation

Pismo Beach, CA – Details: On Wednesday, September 11th, at approximately 9:26 PM, Pismo Beach Police Department officers responded to a report of an unresponsive male at a residence on the 1200 block of Price Street. Upon arrival, officers discovered the male had sustained a fatal stab wound and was pronounced deceased at the scene.

The suspect in the case was quickly identified and fled to the Ventura area, where they later attempted suicide. The suspect is currently receiving medical treatment at a hospital in the Ventura area, under the supervision of Pismo Beach Police Department officers.

This is an active and ongoing investigation. No further details, including the names of the victim and suspect, are being released at this time.
